

Tumaini is Grateful

Eunice recently announced that Tumaini has been appointed by the Kenyan government to be a member of the Area Advisory Council. This council is like a board that approves or disapproves the opening of new homes within the area. It liases with other homes in protecting the vulnerable children of Kenya. "I think this is an honor, and we are grateful to God," states Eunice.
